What We Offer

Texas Autism Academy is offering an innovative educational model to children with Autism and their families. TAA is a private school in The Woodlands/Spring area that is designed to meet the educational and behavioral needs of students. Every student will have an individualized educational plan, and an individualized behavioral plan designed by a Board Certified Behavior Analyst. Both plans will be developed with input from faculty, staff, and most importantly, the student's family. These plans will be implemented in a classroom setting with a maximum of a 7:2 student to teacher ratio.
